

Paani Water

PEEWU – પીવું – TO DRINK

Just like in English, we can say I drink, I drank, I will drink, in Gujarati we can change the verb to tell us when something happens.

Usually / Now

Hoon paani pee chhoo
I drink water

Happening right now

Hoon paani pee rahi chhoo
I am drinking water

In the past

Mein paani peedhu
I drank water

In the future

Hoon paani peesh
I will drink water

HOMEWORK

૧

Match them up

Match the Gujarati to the correct English:

- A. Hoon paani peesh
- B. Mein paani peedhu
- C. Hoon paani pee chhoo

- 1. I drank water
- 2. I will drink water
- 3. I drink water

૨

Change the tense

This is the sentence → Hoon paani pee chhoo. (I drink water)

Now change it to say:

I drank water (yesterday) _____

I will drink water (tomorrow) _____

૩

Milk

Now do the same with "dhoodh" (milk)

I drink milk (now) _____

I drank milk (yesterday) _____

I will drink milk (tomorrow) _____

૪

What do you drink?

Complete the sentences about yourself

Aaje hoon _____ pee chhoo (Today I drink _____)

Gai kale mein _____ peedhu (Yesterday I drank _____)

Aawthi kaale hoon _____ peesh (Tomorrow I will drink _____)